ABOUT NEILSON PARK CREATIVE CENTRE

A note about health and safety during covid-19

Please note that every effort will be made to implement these camps in-house. In the event of mandatory building closure, we will move all activities online and email parents a supply list.

For updates about COVID-19 procedures and how we implement our health and safety plan, please visit our website at www.neilsonparkcreativecentre.com

NPCC was established in 1992 to provide a permanent home for Resident Groups, artists, creators, makers, supporters – wherever within that span individuals feel most at home. With four dedicated studio spaces, two galleries and administrative/support spaces, NPCC continues to respond to the needs of its members and supporters on the western edge of Toronto.

Vision: Connecting to and celebrating a richer life through the arts.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Join our community of artists, makers, and creators, who make Neilson Park Creative Centre a special place to learn and share in an appreciation of the arts.

Register online, by phone or in-person. Registration is complete once registrant information and payment have been received and processed. Registration is on a first-come-first-served basis and is subject to availability. Individuals may be placed on a waitlist if a program is full. NPCC does not permit the auditing of programs.

Registration Dates:

Winter Camps: Available Now!
Summer Camp: December 17, 2020

Payment is due in full upon registration. We accept credit, debit, cheque and cash. NSF cheques are subject to a $25 administration fee.

Cancellation: NPCC reserves the right to cancel or reschedule programs. In the event of a cancellation, a full refund will be issued. If a registrant can no longer participate due to rescheduling, a full refund will be issued. In the event of inclement weather, emergency or natural disaster, registrants should visit our website to confirm session facilitation. Every effort will be made to make-up a cancelled session; however, no refunds will be issued.

Withdrawals from programs must be made at least 14 days before the start date. A refund less $25 administration fee will be issued upon receiving notice of withdrawal by email to: info@neilsonparkcreativecentre.com (charged per course, per registrant).

Transfers between programs are subject to availability. Request for transfers must be made at least 14 days before the start date. A $25 administration fee will be charged. Registration is not transferable among individuals.

Instruction: Program sizes are based on studio space, the age of participants, equipment availability and curriculum suitability. Program instructors are subject to change without notice. To learn more about our artist instructors and their work, visit our website.

Materials: All materials included. In the event of mandatory building closure, we will move all activities online and email parents a supply list.

In the Studio: NPCC is a scent-free environment. Registrants are not to wear colognes or perfumes or use solvents or solvent-based products. Registrants are to work safely and contribute to maintaining a clean learning environment.

Inclusion and Support: NPCC is committed to providing a safe, inclusive and positive environment. By participating in Neilson Park Creative Centre programming, you are agreeing to adhere to our Code of Conduct. Visit our website to learn more.

Feedback: Registrant feedback is essential to both the teaching and learning experience at NPCC. We ask that all registrants complete our evaluation, accessible online or in print at the office.

WHAT TO BRING:

Campers should wear comfortable clothes that can get messy! We suggest packing a change of clothes and/or a smock, just in case. Campers should bring a reusable water bottle, hat, sunscreen, closed shoes/sandals, and nut free snacks and a lunch. Lunches should be ready-to eat, as there is no access to kitchen appliances. Campers are encouraged not to bring personal toys as we have lots of supplies on hand. Cell phones are to be safely stowed away and only used for emergencies. Please note that NPCC is not responsible for lost/stolen or damaged items.

HEALTH AND SAFETY:

All campers must have a completed health and general waiver form prior to the first day of camp, this form is available on our website or in person. Campers must be signed-in every morning and signed-out every afternoon by a parent/guardian listed on the health and general waiver form. Photo identification will be requested at every sign out, for your child's safety. Parents/guardians must review any medication with the Programs Coordinator prior to the first day of camp. If a camper becomes ill, the parent/ guardian will be notified, if the parent/guardian is not available, the emergency contact will be contacted.

STAFF TRAINING:

Camp staff members include the Programs Coordinator, camp counsellors, professional arts instructors, and volunteers. Staff participate in comprehensive preparation prior to the start of camp that includes Standard First Aid, HIGH FIVE: Principles of Healthy Child Development, and inclusion and support training.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

NPCC is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and positive environment. By participating in Neilson Park Creative Centre programming, you are agreeing to adhere to our Code of Conduct. Visit our website to learn more. Camp staff will discuss camp rules and expectations on the first day of camp. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may lead to dismissal from camp.
