MAAC is designed to help your artistic gifts and technical skills flourish and integrate them with academics to prepare you for college, university and beyond. There are several things that set MAAC apart from other pre-collegiate arts programs including:

Faculty

With a passion for developing aspiring artists, our faculty are much more than teachers. Each one brings a comprehensive knowledge of music and theatre to the classroom gained from an extensive academic background integrated and real world experience. All of our faculty are as comfortable in the classroom as they are in the spotlight, be it as performer, conductor, or composer. The energy that they bring will surely inspire you to reach beyond your boundaries and discover endless possibilities!

Program Highlights

At MAAC, it is not uncommon to find some of the best talent from across the community, the nation and the world.
