ST. ANNE'S SCHOOL

Unlike Anything Else!

At St. Anne's School (SAS), what begins as a foundation in academic excellence, leadership, and wellness quickly evolves into a transformative journey. Our students don't just participate, they lead, shape, and elevate our growing legacy.

St. Anne's significantly contributes to girls' education and the development of strong, influential, and empowered female leaders. Your daughter will thrive in an inspirational and progressive learning environment that offers a culture of exploration, discovery, and achievement. The school's focus on STEM/STEAM, community giving, leadership, and wellness develop well-rounded, global-minded citizens.

Why Choose St. Anne's?

- St. Anne's is unlike anything else, a school built for girls, guided by girls, and soaring boldly into the future.
- Here, students are challenged, supported, and inspired to be courageous learners, confident leaders, and compassionate citizens.
- A thriving and growing community united by purpose and possibility
- A bold vision for the future, guided by our strategic plan: In Flight
- Educators with deep expertise in girls' education and adolescent development
- A culture that encourages risk-taking, exploration, and stepping outside your comfort zone
- An environment where student-teacher relationships are personal, meaningful, and empowering
- Innovative and enriched programming that sparks curiosity and deep learning
- A strong emphasis on leadership development – formal and informal, academic and co-curricular
- A holistic approach to wellness and mental health, integrated into every aspect of school life
- Extensive academic support to meet girls where they are and help them thrive
- Robust athletics that promote physical health, resilience, and teamwork
- Unique co-curriculars and clubs designed to foster individuality and purpose
- A deep connection to the local and global community through service and changemaking

Why a School for Girls?

- Because girls deserve a space designed just for them, where confidence grows, voices rise, and possibilities expand.
- A learning environment that encourages bold exploration across every subject and interest
- Teaching strategies grounded in research on how girls learn, lead, and thrive
- Confidence-building through challenge, encouragement, and celebration
- A space where girls develop strong voices and the courage to use them
- A community that dismantles media-driven expectations and redefines what it means to be a girl
- A culture of inclusion, equity, and belonging where all identities are affirmed
- Opportunities to lead, collaborate, and lift others up, starting in the classroom and extending far beyond it
- A sisterhood that fosters connection, loyalty, and strength
- A foundation of self-belief, resilience, and ambition
- An "I can do anything" mindset that lasts for life
- Preparation to lead with empathy and confidence in an ever-changing world

Our Mission:

EMPOWERING GIRLS TO BE COURAGEOUS LEARNERS AND COMPASSIONATE CITIZENS WHO LIVE AND LEAD WITH WISDOM.

The best of both worlds – education's dynamic duo

The relationship between St. Anne's School and St. Andrew's College has become a bold, living example of how two distinct schools can collaborate meaningfully while remaining true to their individual missions. Through the Partnership, students benefit from the best of both worlds, single-gender classrooms designed for optimized learning and shared experiences that foster social growth, empathy, and a strong sense of community.

The Partnership ensures:

- Meaningful shared experiences in clubs, arts, leadership, and service
- A dynamic network of friendships that cross campuses and perspectives
- A safe space to challenge gender stereotypes and grow in confidence
- Regular collaboration between faculty and leadership to ensure aligned values and student support
- A model of educational partnership that is unique in the Canadian educational landscape

IN FLIGHT: The Future of St. Anne's School

St. Anne's School is growing, not just in numbers, but in impact. Our inaugural strategic plan, In Flight, charts a dynamic course for the future of girls' education in Canada. This ambitious plan guides everything we do: how we teach, how we support well-being, how we build community, and how we prepare girls to live and lead with wisdom in a complex world.

Highlights of In Flight:

- A new athletics, community, and wellness centre – The Nest – a home base for belonging, physical literacy, and positive mental health
- Deep investment in STEAM education, innovation, and design-thinking
- Signature leadership and character development programs designed specifically for girls
- A whole-school focus on well-being and balance, with mindfulness, mentorship, and advisory embedded into everyday life
- A learning culture that values global citizenship, experiential learning, and community engagement

In Flight isn't just where we're going, it's who we are becoming and how your daughter will soar. Learn more at www.stannes.ca/stratplan2030
